

Sound Healing Practitioner Training

Sound Healing is the vibratory medicine of the future. It is both a very ancient and very modern, cutting edge, healing modality. It is a natural way to treat pain and illness and is simple to use and highly effective. Sound Healing is simply the therapeutic use of sound and music for healing.

This training is run over 5 weekends and the core curriculum concentrates mainly on healing with the voice and voice toning.

What the students on the 2015/16 Training Course have to say:

🌸 “On a personal level, I have a whole new bunch of wonderful friends. I have learnt a really powerful healing method, confidence, focus, new direction, self-development. I have also learnt a lot about myself, including self acceptance. Undoubtedly the best course I have ever done.”

🌸 “This course has been hugely beneficial, connecting with my voice I lost a while back...I feel very blessed.”

🌸 “Truly life-changing...Amazing. Loved it.”
